FANWOOD

Mention should be made in accounts of Mr. Gardner's funeral, that because of the great amount of flowers, it was not possible to take all to the cemetery at Wappingers Falls. However, solicitous care was taken that the wreath from the pupils accompanied the casket to the grave. Some that remained behind were placed upon the school plot in Trinity Cemetery and a good share was also sent to St. Luke's Hospital.

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors and Members of the School Corporation will be held on Tuesday afternoon, May 15th. The order for the day will be:—

- 4:00 P.M.—Meeting of the Ladies Committee.
- 4:30 P.M.—Annual Meeting of Members and Election of Members and Directors.
- 4:50 P.M.—Adjourned Meeting of the Board of Directors. Election of Officers.
- 5:00 P.M.—Tea will be served.

Saturday, the 5th, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Boatner went to West Point to visit Lieut. and Mrs. H. D. Kehm, who are connected with the Academy there. They found quite a lot of activity going on all on the same day. They saw the regular inspection of the cadet corps, and the ceremonies attending the retirement of the officer for many years in charge of the band at West Point. There were also a baseball game with Columbia, lacrosse with Penn. State, tennis with Johns Hopkins and a track meet with Boston Tech (M. I. T.). If not enough, a golf tournament was in progress on the links.

The annual Field Day of the Fanwood Athletic Association will be held on Monday afternoon May 14th, at which the pupils strive for supremacy in the track events. The officials of the meet are Colonel, Victor O. Skyberg, Superintendent; Physical Director, Lieutenant Frank T. Lux; Physical Directress, Mrs. Mayme H. Voorhees; Judges, Professors E. W. Iles and E. Boatner; Timer, Mr. Wm. A. Renner; Director of Music, Captain Wm. H. Edwards; Captain Boys' Track, Cadet Lieutenant Michael Cairano; Captain Girls' Track, Miss Peggy Reston, and Field Clerk, Cadet Sergeant Lawrence McKeown.

There will be nearly thirty events on the schedule, and all are hoping for bright, sunny skies on that day.

On Tuesday, Mr. Edmund Boatner, Principal of the Boys' Vocational Department, and Mr. William Renner, printing instructor, motored over highways, byways and skyways to Trenton, N. J., and visited the West Trenton school, studying methods and courses for the older pupils. The return trip was made away from the "beaten path" through rich farming sections via Somerville, Morristown, Pompton to New York. Mr. Boatner's sturdy Chevrolet never faltered on the trip embracing nearly 200 miles; and Mr. Renner now thinks of investing in a used car of the same make.

By means of the school projector and two reels of film, the pupils were taken on a visit to Gallaudet College Monday night at 8:30. The films, "Scenes at Gallaudet," showed the Gallaudet campus, College classes, sports and other activities of Gallaudet students. These films were loaned to the school by the Gallaudet College Alumni Association, which produced and is distributing them. "Scenes at Gallaudet" have been shown to some 3500 people in the last eight months.

Mrs. Edwin Nies, of the teaching staff, had the misfortune to wrench her ankle quite badly the other day, which laid her up for a couple of days. Miss Teegarden and Miss Martin were also on the sick list.

Mr. Dan Tucker, of Fulton, Mo., was a visitor recently. He is a graduate of Westminster College at Fulton, and was a Normal Student at Gallaudet. Mr. Tucker has been engaged as vocational teacher here for next fall.

Last week the pupils above the Fourth Grade spent all day with the Stanford Achievement Tests, and the results are awaited with interest.

The 1934 baseball season at Fanwood was opened on Saturday afternoon, May 5th, when Fanwood played the Trinity Baseball Club. L. Balkoski, Fanwood's veteran pitcher, started in a wobbly manner, but as the innings wore on, his effectiveness increased. He was given good support both afield and at bat, as Fanwood pounded out fifteen hits, while making only one miscue. Sandy Tedesco had the busiest bat of the day, he getting five singles and a double. Lineups and summary:—

St. Thomas Mission of Newark, N. J., held its regular meeting Wednesday evening, May 2d, at Trinity Parish House. The office of Clerk being vacant, Mr. Albert Harries was elected to that responsibility. Mr. Joseph Karus was elected a Trustee of the Mission. After the business meeting, President O. W. McInturff announced a reception for the Confirmation Class of 1934. A table was laid with sandwiches and cake and coffee, and the members of the Mission gathered round it, with Rev. G. C. Brad-dock at the head and the Confirmation Class next to him. Miss Esther Decker, one of the class, was unable to attend, but the others were all present: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harries, Mr. Edwin Boharsik, and Miss Gert-rude Hammer. The committee which prepared the delicious refreshments consisted of President McInturff, Mrs. George Rigg, Mrs. W. O. Fish, Mrs. Dewitt C. Staats, and Miss Bernokitis. An enjoyable time was had, and some twenty people were present, on a rainy evening.

Newark Division No. 42, N. F. S. D., held its Strawberry Festival and card party on Saturday evening, May 5th last. There were over 100 present. Bridge, "500" and Bunco was indulged in by most present and cash prizes were given to winners. Mr. Frank Nimmo was chairman of the committee in charge. One-half of the proceeds were donated to the N. A. D. Convention Fund.

NEW YORK CITY

ST. ANN'S NOTES

Sunday, May 13th, will be Confirmation Sunday at St. Ann's Church for the Deaf. The service will be held at 4 P.M., one hour later than usual, to accommodate the Bishop's schedule. The Right Reverend Charles K. Gilbert, Suffragan Bishop of New York, will make the visit to St. Ann's for the first time. His sermon will be interpreted for the deaf. A large attendance is looked for.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Parishioners of St. Ann's Church will be held on Thursday evening, May 10th, at which the election of officers will take place.

The Men's Club of St. Ann's Church gave a social in the Assembly Room of the Church last Friday evening. Various games and contests were played and enjoyed by those present.

Tuesday evening, May 8th, the V. B. G. A. also tendered a social to the members and friends. Auction Bridge was the main attraction. Refreshments were served and a good time was had by all.

B. H. S. D.

A meeting of the B. H. S. D. will be held on Sunday, May 13th, with expectations that all members will attend and review the new changed Constitution and By-laws. After the meeting there will be a movie show with two good features and other comedies.

There will be a bus ride and outing to Heckscher Park, Brooklyn, on July 15th. A game of indoor baseball will be played with any club that applies to M. Weiner, 2306 Douglas Street, Brooklyn.

The Society's burial plot at Mount Hebron will be open for visitors on May 20th, if rain, postpone to the 27th. To reach there take Myrtle Ave., Elevated train (Metropolitan) to Wyckoff Ave., then take Ridgewood trolley car (Flushing Ave.) to Mount Hebron.

One of the sub-committees of the coming N. A. D. Convention in New York City next July, is that of Accommodations. Several inquiries have been received in regard to lower priced places other than the large hotels. Both deaf and hearing people who have convenient accommodations available during the week of July 22d, are requested to write to the Chairman, Mr. W. A. Renner, 99 Fort Washington Avenue, for blanks to fill out and have their places listed.

Mr. John N. Funk, Gotham's man-about-town, bon-vivant and raconteur, who has been under the weather lately, has gone to his brother's farm in Connecticut for a week or so, where he hopes to benefit by the enforced association with bovine placidity and the 9 o'clock curfew.

Miss Ethel Koblenz, a graduate of Fanwood, was married last week to Leonard Lau, Gallaudet '30, in Mason City, Iowa.

Mr. Emerson Romero, our leading teacher and director of Contract Bridge, will direct at the one-night tourney at the 67th Street School on Saturday evening, May 26th. It is earnestly requested that all players be present not later than 8 P.M. as play will get under way promptly at 8:15.

It is hoped the Union League, Ephphatans and St. Ann's will have teams at the track meet at Fanwood on May 30th. The Margravs and K. D. L. have entered.

H. A. D.

The long-heralded Barn Dance of the H. A. D. will take place at the Masonic Hall Sixth Avenue, corner 23d Street, New York, this Saturday evening, May 12th, at 7:30 P.M. The swellest time of your depressed lives is promised; prizes and fun galore. Come in farm costume, please. The admission is strictly forty-nine cents and not a penny more.

On Sunday afternoon, the 13th, at 3 o'clock, the annual Memorial Service takes place on the H. A. D. grounds at New Mt. Carmel Cemetery. Directions: Take 14th Street B.M.T. Line or Myrtle Avenue "L" to Myrtle Avenue Station, then trolley "Richmond Hill" (Jamacia) to 66th Street. Walk one block to right.

An interesting show was staged at the Community Center on 91st Street, last Sunday evening, by the Association, which drew a capacity house. As part of the proceeds went to the National Association for the Deaf, the local convention fund was greatly helped thereby. The program:—

- Pantomime—"Many a Laugh" Sam Paul and Mrs. A. Jaffe.
- Farce—"The Bathroom Door" Mrs. B. Peters, Louis Goldwasser, Eva Segal, Charles Joselow, Abraham Kruger and Mrs. M. Schnapp.
- Dialogue—"So This is New York" Eleanor Sherman and Dorothy Havens
- Children's Play—"In the Nursery" Rita Kaminsky, Dick Sturtz, Charles Joselow and Mrs. B. Peters
- Declamation—"The Congo" George Lynch Assisted by Abraham Kruger at drum
- "Going This Way?" (Skit) Abraham Kruger, George Lynch and Louis Goldwasser.
- A Series of Dances—Salior's Hornpipe Ann Douglas
- Tap Dance Rita Kaminsky
- Highland Fling Ann Douglas
- Volga Dance Sam Paul
- Butterfly Dance Ann Douglas
- Playlet—"Love in Spring" Eva Segal and Louis Goldwasser
- Tragedy—"The Snake Charmer" Charles Joselow, Mrs. A. Jaffe, Geo. Lynch
- Movies—"Scenes at Gallaudet," Loaned through the courtesy of Gallaudet College.

The Dramatic Committee consisted of Charles Joselow, chairman; Mrs. Anna Plapinger, Mrs. B. Peters, Abraham Kruger and Jacob Friedman.

Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Simon E. Osseman, the former chairman of the H. A. D. Advisory Board; Miss Helme of the Employment Center, and Mr. and Mrs. Max of New York University. Mrs. Max is better known as Pearl Bernstein, Secretary to the Board of Estimate of New York City.

BRIDGE NOTES

What is believed to have been the largest crowd of deaf people ever to get together at one time to play Duplicate Contract Bridge, met last Friday (or Friday, May 4th) at the Union League Bridge Club, under the direction of Mr. Emerson Romero. A total of ten tables were in play, two of which were for the Novice Section, to which Mr. Romero gave a greater part of his time to teaching. The regular section consisted of eight tables, and for the first time the Mitchell Movement was used. The sterling team of Messrs. Brandelstein and Worzel won the North-South prizes, and Messrs. Block and Bloom finished second. On the East-West side, Messrs. N. Miller and Hurwit won the top score, and Messrs. Williams and Krieger were runners-up.

Two more sessions remained to be played and it looks like anybody's race, with Messrs. Brandelstein, Worzel, Cohen, Farliser, Funk, Goldwasser and Stein very much in the running for the beautiful seasonal trophy.

Empire State Gleanings

On April 14th and 15th a bowling tournament was held in the Jefferson Alleys, Syracuse, with teams from Montreal, Buffalo, Utica, Binghamton, and Syracuse competing. The Montrealers made a rather poor showing, but had a good alibi for it as they had just arrived after a long, tiresome automobile trip, in spite of which they insisted on going ahead with the schedule.

The scores in the main contest, between the five-man teams, were—

Syracuse	2,623
Utica	2,608
Buffalo	2,489
Binghamton	2,385
Montreal	1,992

Saturday evening, April 14th, after the regular meeting of Syracuse Division, N. F. S. D., a "Get-Acquainted" Social was held, with over 100 present. Some said there were about 200 on hand, but the count of paid admissions showed a few more than 100. Anyway, everybody seemed to have a good time, and the Division's treasury, somewhat depleted through assisting hard-up members, received a sizeable addition.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Grace Wasse, the "Aux-Frats," of Syracuse made a fine quilt-top which was sold for the benefit of the Division, a hearing woman being the lucky purchaser. Some comment has been made that hearing persons seem to win most of such prizes, but if we do not want hearing people to walk off with the prizes, we should not ask them to purchase tickets!

Mrs. Hugh Moore, of Rochester, who had a nervous breakdown some weeks ago, has returned home completely recovered, although the doctor advises her to be careful for a while.

George Burr, of Watertown, was in Syracuse this month, having been transferred from a silk mill in Watertown to a newly-opened one in Syracuse, but after working a few days, he was laid off, which so disgusted him that he returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eldredge, of Schenectady, recently spent several days, with the latter's mother and sisters in Rome. Robert is an operator on one of the Schenectady daily newspapers and his idea of a vacation is to don old clothes and do painting and carpenter work. Mrs. Eldredge's mother, Mrs. Frank Gould, is the oldest graduate of the Rome school, very spry for her age, and promises to remain the oldest graduate for quite a number of years to come.

John Koeper of Schenectady is a pattern maker at the American Locomotive Shops and has been quite busy of late. Perhaps those new "stream lined" locomotives have something to do with it. Work at the immense General Electric plant in Schenectady is picking up, and is having a good effect on the business situation in that city. The plant, when in full operation, employs something like twenty thousand people.

Eunice Tryon, who graduated from the Rome school a couple of years ago, is helping Mrs. Tom Sack, of Schenectady, raise that boy we wrote about some time ago.

John Brownlee, of Watertown, has been laid up for some time with what appears to have been a severe attack of the grip, and his numerous friends hope he will soon be himself again.

Miss Annie Broderick, who was an employee of the Rome school for many years, retiring on account of illness last fall, has gone to live with a sister in Pennsylvania.

Believe it or not, but most of the gas meters—not gasoline pumps where you buy gas for your car, but the dinguses that hide in your cellar and tell the gas company how much it can safely charge you for the gas you use to fry your matinal ham and eggs—used in this section of the country, including the quart-in-the-slot kind, are manufactured in Albany, and a score or more deaf men are employed in training the things to tell the truth (?)

The Rochester Frats are to have a "Pussy Willow" social the evening of May 5th, and we have it that the affair is going to be well worth attending.

The Rev. Samuel Tyler, D.D., who, while rector of St. Luke's Church, Rochester, showed much interest in the deaf, has been elected rector of the Episcopal Church in Rome, Italy, a signal honor. Since leaving Rochester, several years ago, he has been a Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fischer, both Rome graduates, who used to live in South Edmeston, are now residents of Gloversville, where Chester is a skilled worker in one of the larger glove factories. Gloversville is aptly named, for it has something like 150 glove factories, and nearly everybody there has something to do with the manufacture of "hand-shoes" as the Germans call gloves.

A recent visit to Northville found Jean Paul Gruet, one-time honor-man at Fanwood, busy in his print shop in that village. Jean Paul learned the art preservation from the late lamented Edwin Allan Hodgson, and, learned it well, as his work amply proves. But he has had more than his share of hard luck as his shop has had two fires in the past several years, with no insurance. But you can bet your bottom dollar that he has plenty of insurance now! Between whiles this erstwhile Gothamite, who once did not know which end of a cow to milk or whether turnips grew on trees, runs a hundred-acre farm, all bought and paid for.

Miss Ella M. Steltzner, of Amsterdam, was recently tendered a surprise birthday party, receiving a number of nice and useful presents.

Rev. H. C. Merrill held services in Schenectady, Albany and Gloversville on April 22d, and is scheduled to be in Oneida, Utica, Ilion, and Syracuse on the 29th, also in Rochester (11 A.M.) and Buffalo (7:30 A.M.) on May 6th.

Some cities, towns, and villages in the State, including New York, go on daylight-saving time April 29th, and some stay on standard time, which is confusing. To our way of thinking, the need for daylight-saving time is past, especially with so many millions working only part time. As it is, many of us have too much leisure already, and there is an old adage to the effect that Satan finds mischief for idle hands to do.

In Memoriam

WHEREAS, Edward C. Elsworth passed away into life eternal on April 14th, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Elsworth in the many years of his membership in this Club has displayed those qualities of fraternity, integrity and faithfulness, which won the respect and affection of all his many friends, and

WHEREAS, We have found in him a spirit of ready helpfulness and energy in every activity in which the Club and Church engaged, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Men's Club of St. Ann's Church for the Deaf hereby express its sorrow and records its sense of loss in the passing away of Mr. Elsworth, and be it further

Resolved, That the sympathy of the Club be extended to his family and that these Resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of the Club and published in the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL and a copy sent to the family.

The party given by Silent Fellowship on Saturday evening, April 21st, was in every way worthy of the name "Popular." The fun was fast and furious from start to finish. Chairman Boesen kept the crowd moving, pausing only now and then to pass around jelly beans as rewards for winners in the simpler games where there were no prize awards, and as consolation for those who did not win, and always there would be the query, "Don't you feel popular?" Following are the games where prizes were given, and the winners:—

Popular Disc Race, First Relay—First prizes, Alfred Goetz and Mrs. Hale. Boobies, Mr. Pedersen and Mrs. Stuard.

Second Relay, Disc Race—First prizes, Arvid Rudnick and Miss Bessie Zurluh. Booby prizes, Mr. Lorenz and Mrs. Rowland.

Popular Peanut Grab—First prizes, James Scanlon and Mrs. Rowland. Booby prizes, tied for by Carl Nollus and Mrs. Garrison, "Peter —" and Mrs. Ecker.

Popular Blind Fold Dance—First prizes were tied by two couples, Mr. Scanlon and Mrs. Oliver, Mr. Jensen and Mrs. Stebbins.

Popular Three-legged Race—First prizes, Mary Mourea and "Peter." Boobies, Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins.

Popular Dancing—First, prizes, Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins. Second prizes, Mr. and Mrs. Garrison.

Popular Bridge—First prizes, Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins. Boobies, Mrs. Walter Lichtenberg and Mr. Gerson.

Popular Borneo Nose Race—The team headed by Mr. Gerson and Mrs. Stuard. In this, the most mirth provoking game of all, the cover of a safety match box was passed down the line from nose to nose. That is, it was supposed to be, but, well just try it and see how easy it is!

Door prizes were won by Mr. Stuard and Mrs. Adams. By vote of the committee in charge of the affair, Mr. Carl Garrison was voted the most popular gentleman present. When Chairman Boesen was asked this reason for overlooking the ladies, he explained that he had passed out everything on hand for prizes except a cigar and so—he thought it more fitting to present the cigar to the most popular gentleman instead of lady. Quite a slick excuse, but hardly a "popular" one with the ladies. There were sixty-three persons at the party. Just before the crowd dispersed, one noticed a spellbound group of which John Bodley was the center. Expecting to see a discourse on world issues, we investigated and found John discussing the merits and demerits of different brands of baking powder and telling just how to make a cake so moist, so delicious, so everything a cake should be! John learned the baker's trade at the Olathe, Kansas, school, and made a good living thereby until the depression came. Now he expects to start work at something else soon. By the way, John looks enough like ex-president Hoover to be his twin brother.

The last one to arrive at the party was James Scanlan, dolled up in the latest thing in golf attire. He explained that he had secured a job as sign painter at the Parkland Golf Course painting sand boxes, and instead of the currency he had hoped for, he was paid with a season pass. And so, determined to make the best of it, he had taken up golf with a vim—and had played eighteen holes that afternoon, and had no time to go home to the other side of town and change to more formal attire.

As far as we know, Rex Oliver, of Everett, is the only deaf man to have the job of foreman in a mill. Starting seventeen years ago as tallyman in the Robinson Mill, he has advanced to checker, and finally to foreman of the finishing room. He deserves congratulations.

John Terris is now working on a ranch at Woodland, near Puyallup.

Holger Jensen is living on the income from the rent of several houses he owns in Olympia. He assures us the rent is promptly paid and he does not even have to go to collect it. Quite marvelous in times like these.

Miss Mary Monreau is a newcomer in our midst, although she has lived several years at Roy, having moved there from Minnesota.

Neils Boesen and Emil Lichtenberg are busy painting houses on contract, for the State Saving and Loan Co. This makes the third year they are worked for the same company.

Edwin Cruzan and his wife are the happy parents of an 8-pound boy, Edwin, Jr., born April 10th, at Tacoma General Hospital. This is their third child and second son.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ecker are pinochle fans. They often play with their neighbors and George is telling about a perfectly wonderful hand he held the other night. A pinochle hand, of course.

Mrs. Lorenz's son, Maurice Boston, had a mishap while playing basketball at Lincoln High, some weeks ago. The injury to his knee kept him confined to bed for two weeks, but he is now up and around on crutches.

When James Scanlon is not playing golf, he is working in his mother's rock garden. What with wheeling dirt from two blocks away, and scrambling among the rocks on the steep bank. James does not feel very kindly toward the fellow who invented rock gardens. He'd rather play golf.

George Ecker is chairman for a party to be given by Silent Fellowship, May 19th, at the usual place, K. P. Hall, South Tacoma Way. Imp's Puzzle Party is what he says it is to be and if you wonder what that is, just come along, Saturday evening, May 19th, and George will show you.

KIBITZER.

Kansas City

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green moved into the neighborhood of Mr. Jim Paterson a few weeks ago.

Glenn McConnell, assistant swimming instructor at the Y. M. C. A., is a member of the life-saving corps of the Red Cross. Of the forty-seven examiners and instructors, belonging to it, he is the youngest, and also he is the only deaf person in Kansas City to possess a life-saving emblem.

The youngest of the newly organized Sports Club defied the possible voodoo of Friday, the thirteenth, and went ahead with the weinie roast at Swope Park.

Mr. Albert Loeb is laid up in a hospital after an accident at his workshop. A faulty machine got hold of his leg, and nearly made a mess of it. The worst done to the leg was a fracture—thanks to his fellow workers who rescued him in time.

The new officers elected at the recent Sphinx Literary Club meeting are as follows: Fred Murphy, president (re-elected); Fremand Offerlee, vice-president; John Miller, secretary; William Marra, treasurer; and Philip Nordtvedt, sergeant-at-arms. The next meeting of the club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on May 1st.

A literary program, sponsored by a Sunday school class under the chairmanship of Miss Lila Buster, drew a good-sized crowd to the Y. M. C. A. on April 10th. The scheduled speaker, Max Mossel, was bed-ridden, and Mr. Fremand Offerlee took his place at the last minute notice. Others on the program were Rev. Mr. Rutherford and Miss Buster.

The Kansas School closed for the summer last April 21st. Only eight pupils were graduated.

The following day a picnic was held on the school grounds, and it was well attended by the alumni and friends.

Dale Kendricks has left for Michigan, where he expects to make a home.

The word "move" is hackneyed as far as Mr. and Mrs. F. Murphy are concerned. They moved again from Kansas City, Kan., into their former neighborhood.

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to Howard S. Ferguson, 250 W. Sparks St., Olney, Philadelphia, Pa.

The new quarters of the Silent Athletic Club, Inc., at 3535 Germantown Avenue, were thrown open to the public for the first time last Saturday evening, April 28th, and more than 150 people jammed their way in. Most everybody spoke highly of the new location, of its roominess of the club-room, freshly painted with the colors blue and yellow. Many of the old-timers have stated that it is the best yet. Chairman Jack Stanton was the host of the evening and he arranged many entertainments for the visitors, among those being the billiard, ping-pong and dart play-off championships of the club. The billiard game itself was a humdinger, which saw the crowning of Christian McElhaugh as champ, he winning over John Delaney, who at one time had a 30-point lead, but could not hold on to it. Fifty points was the length of the game. Chris Unger walked away with the ping-pong and dart championships, having defeated all comers in both events. Liberal cash prizes were awarded both winners.

The Frat meeting of May 4th saw the admittance to membership of Benny Pollock and Charles Rucchini. Benny took his oath of membership and Charles' oath was deferred until the next meeting as he was unavoidably detained at home due to sickness in the family. Abraham Urofsky, younger brother of Benny, and John Reilly, of Norwood, Pa., both asked for application in the lodge. This will make ten new members in the last three months. I wonder who will be next? It was decided at the meeting that a debate dealing on the question, "Resolved, That a married woman's place is at home," would be held at the conclusion of the June meeting. Four married men, two on the affirmative side, they being James F. Brady and George H. King, and two on the negative side, viz., Charles Kepp and William Walker, will do the debating. Jim Jennings, John A. Roach and Rev. Edward F. Kaercher, all bachelors, will do the judging. This will mean a hot time, so come out and see the debate.

The church grounds at All Souls' are taking on their spring dress. The Vicar, Rev. Henry J. Pulver has planted many small trees and shrubs. The rear of the church yard will be enclosed with a fence, having an arched gateway. In fact the place is taking on a bucolic air and the sexton "goes to city" on his days off.

Mr. James S. Reider, beloved former conductor of this column, was called to York recently by the serious illness of his daughter. We hope she will be on the road to recovery so that "Little Jimmy" can get back to his friends soon.

Mrs. Elmer Mock, with her usual taste for "something new" and original, has planned a real May Day Party as an entertainment for the Clerc Literary Association. The affair was held on Saturday, May 5th, and was held in the auditorium of the church. There was a Maypole set up with all the trimmings that go with it. Little Nancy Pulver was May Queen, with Jimmy Fowler as the prince.

Plans are now complete for the Whitsunday celebration at All Souls'. After the solemn Choral Communion service in the afternoon, a photo of the congregation will be taken. During the evening, as already described last week in this column, the cafeteria and play will be at the convenience of those who attend. Whitsunday is May 20th.

Among contemplated improvements at the church, slated for the coming summer are the resurfacing of all the floors and the enlarging of the gymnasium in the basement by fifteen feet. The latter improvement will provide a full-size floor for the All Souls' basketball team next winter.

Rev. Mr. Pulver was in New York City, May 4th and 5th, to attend a meeting of the committee which is arranging the International Exhibition of Fine and Applied Art by deaf artists. He had as his company during the trip Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Jerwan and Mr. Reneau. The latter, while there, put in a call at the Trolley Car's abode.

The time for the Silent Athletic Club banquet is drawing nigh, June 9th, to be exact, and Chairman John A. Roach will be pleased to hear from those who contemplate going, as soon as possible, so he can put in reservations. Get in touch with him. His address is 220 Sulis Street, Olney, Pa.

At the Relay Carnival held on Saturday, April 28th, at the University of Pennsylvania Stadium, the boys from the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf finished a poor fourth in their class, due mostly to the starter of the relay team slipping in the mud and losing much yardage. Trenton school copped first place, with St. Joseph Institute of New York, second in another class of the relays. Among the 40,000, who saw the races was Edward Evans, who has not missed a Penn Relay for "yahrs and yahrs."

SEATTLE

Last Wednesday evening, Harry Landeryou, while about to board a street-car, was knocked down by a car driven by a woman. She passed two other cars that had stopped, and as Harry was the last one about to get on the car, he was thrown down. Fortunately no bones were broken, and beyond a bruise on the top of his head, which struck the street cement, and several other tender places, he is not much hurt. He was carrying two large boxes of freshly cleaned garments which he was delivering, and they also were not damaged.

Jack Bertram, after an enforced and incongenial idleness of several months, is back with an engraving plant where he worked before, and is on full time. They needed him so much that they sent a special messenger for him. He and all his friends are hoping the work is permanent.

While he was out of work he was sent for from Bellingham to take the place of a sick engraver, and he was there for several days.

Miss Genevieve Sink reports a steady rush of work at the manufacturing jewelry company where she works as a jewelry engraver. She frequently has to stay over time.

Mrs. Thomas Hagerty entertained the Able Club on April 19th. It was the first time the three visiting ladies saw the new home on Magnolia Bluff, and they were charmed with the location. It was on a somewhat high lot, and commands a beautiful view of the sound and mountains. The little house was gay with color, a large box of petunias in full bloom running the entire length of the front porch. After a most excellently cooked luncheon, bridge was played till the late afternoon, Mrs. Hanson winning the prize. The two little five months-old twins have grown amazing, and are already quite tanned from their daily sunbaths. Small as they are, they are already great company for each other, and jabber away sociably. They make a winsome spectacle for all callers.

The Iahnkers are intending to put a new basement into their home this summer, and later to make a quite extensive alterations and additions.

The Gallaudet Guild party was held on April 22d, and we had the pleasure of having with us, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell, of Tacoma, and their two little girls. They were in Seattle to say goodbye to a sister of Mrs. Lowell, who was returning to California after having come up for the funeral of her mother, who died suddenly on Easter Sunday. She had lived with the Lowells for twelve years, and had been of great help with the children and in countless other ways. Mrs. Lowell feels her loss keenly, and she has the sympathy of her many friends.

At the Guild party the bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Victoria Smith and Mr. E. Martin.

Mr. Frank Rolph has signed up as cook for the summer for a salmon crew, and is expecting to leave shortly for Alaska. Mrs. Rolph will remain here and hold down her job of candling eggs.

Mrs. Hanson attended the Spring bazaar held by St. Mark's Guild on April 18th. After luncheon there was a bridge tournament, at which Mrs. Hanson won the prize, a gay peasant apron.

Mr. Hugo Holcombe came over from Manette to read the morning prayers at St. Mark's on April 15th, and Mrs. Hanson took him home for luncheon afterwards. The other guests were Mrs. Smith, Miss Nation, Mrs. Bertram, Mrs. Hagerty, Mr. LaMotte and Mr. Christensen.

CHICAGO

The only deaf-owned poultry-butcher shop in Chicago went broke! This place, in the 1500 block on Belmont, was bought a year ago by deafdom's greatest writer of humor—Hank Crutcher, who came here after selling a laundry business in Detroit and a poolroom in Cincinnati. Crutcher proved a better writer than a businessman. So last October he sold out to the young Carter Henningsen.

Henningsen tried to steer the place out of its financial morass, and was making good headway when lately he was served with papers in a law-suit for back-rent. He went to see the owner, a hearing man, who told him to ignore the matter. "You needn't go to court; just leave everything to me, and it will all be all right," the rascal said. So Henningsen did. A few days later he found that the court had added fat legal-fees to the sum due for back rent. "I'll be hanged if I'm gonna pay it," said he, so he let the whole miserable mess go by default.

The papers tell a good one. Just before the Chicago Cubs opened the National League season—and they are way out ahead of the world-champ N'Yawks right now—Manager Cholly Grimm invited all the promising young free-lances in the vicinity to morning drill with his squad. Grimm moved around among the lads, and espied a couple promising huskies off in a corner. "Cum'er," he yelled. No response. "Hey, you; are yah deaf? Com' on over." Still no reply. Just then he noticed the lettering on their shirts: "Chicago Silents." They were deaf-mute brothers. Whether the Carlson or Stowostowitzki brothers, is unknown.

Miss Ethel Koblenz, of the Bronx, (N. Y. C.), a pretty little pippin with pep, punch and personality, spent a week-end in Chicago en route to Iowa. She is an expert duplicate-contract bridge—so had small difficulty in cleaning-up the "500" tables at the Pas-a-Pas Club's weekly social on the 28th. Mrs. Hal Keesal finished second, "Midget" Meagher third, Mrs. Mayers fourth. Miss Koblenz shortened her name two days later, when in Mason City, Ia, she became Mrs. Leonard Lau. Lau, Gallaudet, '30, studied one year at Ames University, and is looking for an opening in structural engineering lines. He was business-manager of the student monthly, Buff and Blue, at Gallaudet.

When the Illinois school closes May 25th, the highly-successful three-year experiment with children of pre-school age, will be discontinued. Curriculum revisions are considered. The school gym was used for the State Catholic tournament this past winter. Due to a mix-up in records, our school used Harley Cox, eighteen, thinking him eligible for athletic competition—and got in a jam with the state high school governing body when it came out Cox had played two seasons for Canton High before coming to Jax. Profiting by this lesson, one of the teachers has been made permanent custodian of all vital statistics of the athletes.

The dance and card party—an annual affair of Beidler Silent Club—drew a crowd of between 150 and 300 to its hall at 2700 South Turner Avenue, April 28th. That address is out in West Side, in south direction, the first location of any deaf organization's party. The dance was a flop until 10 p.m., when the people finished the cards and bunco. Then the musicians, paid four hours' wages for two hours of actual sound-scraping, began briskly enough after the first two hours' idleness. That ball was interesting, being on the first floor in the same corner building with a tavern in front. The entrance was on the side-street. One would think that its inner size might be confining by looking at it from outside. One is mistaken, however, on entering. It was of ideal dimensions, fitting exactly the number of people as they came in. It was a most medley crowd imaginable, including a large sprinkling of hearing girls—certainly attractive—and those who were not there missed them. After one, for years and years, attended parties where the hearing people seldom showed up in any appreciable numbers, he certainly felt a thrill of curiosity to see a number of them at that party, and could not keep from staring at them—almost wonderingly.

This same evening, the Young People's Club held a card and dance party—likewise annual—at the headquarters of the Chicago League of Hard of Hearing. They had a better program in one respect. They contracted for musicians to play from 10 to 12, and not from 8 to 12, and waste music on the players engrossed in bridge from 8 to 10.

As before, Central Oral Club is doing its best for a "500"-bunco party on the second Sunday of this month, at the Atlantic Hotel, 316 South Clark Street, at 7:30. That'll be May 13th.

Mrs. Ed. Knobloch was surprised eating at her ice-box, when a party of girls sprang in upon her. The occasion was for her birthday. Mrs. Joe Miller was the leader. The date was the afternoon of April 28th.

Mrs. Joe Miller had an operation for tonsillitis, Tuesday, April 24th, yet she recovered fast enough to put over the party for Mrs. Knobloch.

Miss Virginia Gage left for Olathe, Kan. to spend some time with her aunt, Retta Williamson, whose teaching duties at the Kansas deaf school ended Saturday, April 28th, due to a new building being erected for the institution. Virginia and her aunt have visited the Ozark Mountains and other points of interest before returning to Delavan for Retta's summer vacation.

Rev. Rutherford preached at the M. E. Mission Sunday, April 29th. He and Rev. Hasenstab resumed their preaching tour May 6th and 7th, respectively, after one week's rest.

Before Mrs. Churchill left for Texas to live with her daughter, the M. E. fold gave her a send-off party at Miss Cora Jacoba's.

Mrs. Ingval Dahl was birthday partyed by friends.

Newspapers have been carrying pictures of a leading U. of Chicago co-ed, Miss Mary Ellison, granddaughter of deaf Delos Simpson, who founded the St. Louis Gallaudet School ages ago.

Miss Caroline Hyman spent several days in New York City. She will graduate from Gallaudet College in June—the first product of any of Chicago's eleven oral day schools to do so.

Joe J. Guepfer was set upon by three footpads in the dark, April 28th, slugged unconscious and robbed of his last cent.

"He's true to God who's true to man;
Whenever wrong is done
To the humblest and the weakest
Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,
And they are slaves most base,
Whose love of right is for themselves
And not for all the race."

OF LATE considerable more thought is being given to that class of children known as being handicapped. Where it touches deaf children, the latter are peculiarly fortunate in that their education, as a rule, is under the direction and oversight of cultured men and women who have been especially trained for this line of service. Some children, usually grouped in the class of the handicapped, are rendered helpless by a physical infirmity which renders them more or less unfit for an equal struggle with those who are not encumbered by physical defect. Some others may require the constant attendance of physicians and nurses, and thus form a very special class for educational purposes.

It is entirely out of place to include in such groups children who are merely deaf and who, in addition to correct literary and vocational training, have their physical, mental and moral needs so carefully attended to in residential schools for their instruction. It is particularly to be regretted that children of this character should ever be grouped, with regard to their education, under the same administration as the blind and, above all, the feeble-minded. The sole peculiarity of the average congenital deaf child is in the ability to speak and the difficulty of acquiring a command of language through the ear. The policy of segregating the deaf in schools apart from other handicapped children is a sensible one; it would be difficult for them to cultivate a spirit of self-respect and personal responsibility in an environment of the mentally deficient.

FOR those of the deaf who habitually use speech in their daily social affairs, pronouncing more or less plainly, and eagerly accepting correction of errors offered by kind friends, a new problem has apparently arisen, or rather has existed and become more prominent. Plans are reported to have been formulated by a group forming the International Committees on American Speech, whose program is to standardize American English and to effect some sort of compromise on pronunciation, enunciation, tone and modulation between all English-speaking peoples, in fact, to evolve new speech standards; it is a rather large undertaking. It is complained that on public platforms and in theaters different speakers and members of the same theatrical cast pronounce some of the simplest words in an entirely different way. Now, what can the Speech Center, or the Committee on American Speech do in the premises? Also, it is further complained that in much public speaking there is unpleasant nasal rasp, and an illiterate quality of stupid affectation seems to prevail. In this emergency there remains to the deaf the consolation that they need not worry greatly as to public speaking on the platform since they are rarely called upon to practice the "nasal rasp" in public; perhaps, after all, they speak as well as circumstances require, which is as plain and to the point as the generality people practice in ordinary speaking.

A BEVY of bright deaf young women, who have had experience in amateur theatricals, have come forward to do their share in aiding the Local Committee of the National Association in providing the wherewithal for the entertainment of delegates and visitors to the Convention of the Association in July. They present their program at Audubon Hall, 166th Street and Broadway, on Saturday evening, May 19th.

The young women will be assisted by hearing talent in acts, singing and dancing, which will afford a treat equally to the deaf and to their hearing friends.

TO REPEAT: the Committee on Program, arranging the outline of proceedings for the Convention of the National Association of the Deaf, to be held in July, would be pleased to receive information from those who intend to present papers to be read at the meeting.

ADVICES from Charlestown, W. Va., informs us that the colored superintendent of the school for colored deaf and blind, while temporarily insane, shot and injured several attendants at the school, and then killed himself.

Mother's Day

Mother's Day—May 13th—is to be observed by women's clubs, men's clubs, medical societies, chambers of commerce and other professional and civic groups, who will join in community efforts throughout the nation to "Make Motherhood Safe for Mothers." This announcement is made by Mrs. Shephard Krech, President of the Maternity Center Association, New York City.

"An important step forward is to be taken this year, states Mrs. Krech. "In three previous Mother's Day Campaigns, the effort was to arouse the public to the importance of the fact that two-thirds of the maternity deaths are preventable; that 10,000 of the 16,000 women who die annually in childbirth could be saved. The next move, which is to be taken this year, is to do something quite specific and definite about it, with groups working in every community."

"There has been a great deal of sentiment surrounding Mother's Day during the time that it has been observed in this country," said Mrs. Krech. "In the last few years there has been a successful effort to direct this fine feeling toward the important subject of saving mothers from unnecessary death. But emotion alone is not enough. We must have facts, pertinent facts, local facts, so that groups in every community may work with their own physicians, health officers, nursing associations and hospital authorities to alter those factors in the situation which are a barrier to safe motherhood."

The address of the Maternity Center Association is 1 East 57th Street, New York City.

Vindicated

It was a set of stern charges which the alumni of the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind, at Staunton, filed with the Board of Visitors against the institution's superintendent, H. M. McManaway. With the allegation that this official was incompetent and inefficient was linked the further accusation that he had been cruel to a student who had refused to accept a certain method of instruction.

From the beginning it was urged that this situation be thoroughly cleared up. That was due not only to the taxpayers who help support the institution, to the school itself and to the students, but to Mr. McManaway. His character and his administration had been brought into question. If these charges were unfounded, that fact should be made plain at the earliest opportunity. Similarly, if they could be sustained, then it would be obvious that Mr. McManaway was ill placed.

The investigation has been held, with the result that the superintendent was vindicated before the world. The charges lodged against him, however well-intentioned and honest the complainants were, were not sustained. Many prominent citizens of Staunton, including a justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals, testified as to the ability and character of Mr. McManaway. The Board, composed of earnest men and women, acted with due deliberation after adducing all available evidence.

The one positive action of the Board was to give its approval to a report, submitted by a special committee, dealing with the method or methods of instruction at the school, which was one bone of contention. This report concluded with the following language:—

Though the committee desires to emphasize the importance of the so-called oral method, it does not believe that any one single method should be utilized exclusively to the exclusion of all others, but that the ability or capacity of the child should in the final analysis dictate what method should be used with the child under any and all circumstances. The committee wishes further to point out that the above principles of teaching are now employed at the V. S. D. B.

Some of the alumni had held that the method of instruction was restricted, contrary to the best practice in such institutions. Be that as it may, the Board has now gone on record as approving that instruction which would best suit the individual student. This is a declaration of policy which in the future will have the weight of law.

The flurry caused by the filing of these charges against Mr. McManaway is happily over. It is to be hoped that everybody concerned is satisfied with the result and that the school will go ahead, with more success than ever, with its all-important function in the training of the deaf and blind.—Richmond Times-Dispatch, April 29.

D. F. Bangs Passes

Dwight Freeman Bangs, a prominent member of the profession a number of years ago, died at his home in Faribault on Monday, April 16th. He was a son of Egbert L. Bangs, one-time Superintendent of the Michigan School for the Deaf. His early years were spent at that school and his playmates were the deaf boys. It was natural, therefore, when he attained manhood, that his inclinations were toward the profession of teaching. In the fall of 1888 he became a teacher in the Minnesota School for the Deaf where he remained for seven years. He showed marked ability as a teacher and was always seeking better ways of approaching the minds of the deaf children who came under his instruction.—The Companion.

DeCarion - Mitchell

Precisely at ten on the morning of April 28th, Mr. Edward J. Mitchell, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mitchell, and Miss Louise DeCarion, the only daughter of Mrs. Betty DeCarion, were united in holy matrimony at St. Mary's Episcopal Church on West 126th Street, between Amsterdam Avenue and Old Broadway. Rev. Dr. Ackley, who claimed to have preached once at St. Ann's Church for the Deaf years ago, performed the wedding ceremony. The church was comfortably filled with relatives of the newly-married couple, among the guests being about fifteen of the deaf.

Mr. Jack Carnaby, of Boston, Mass., acted as the best man. Miss Florence —, an intimate friend of the bride, was the bridesmaid. Mr. William DeCarion, the fifteen-year-old brother of the bride, gave her away.

Immediately after the ceremony, the newlyweds rushed to the docks of the Clyde-Mallory Steamship Line, at the foot of Canal Street, where the speedy and big ship, "Shawnee," was waiting for the arrival of the bridal party. The steamer was scheduled to sail at noon. The others, as well as the employees of the Borden Products Co., were at the dock to bid the newlyweds bon-voage.

The employees of the company gave a purse of $100 to the happy couple. The following poem was written by Miss Bridget MacAlister, employed at Borden's, who was born in Scotland but of Irish parentage. Papa Peter is proud of her, because his mother was named Bridget:

High up in great Olympus the Gods are gathered now.
There's hope in every image and peace on every brow.
For Zeus himself has spoken as he bends his heavy head,
"I swear by every token that young Eddie must be wed."

"For four long years he's waited to join that sacred band
Of happy handsome husbands who take courage and stand,
And promise at the Altar while Pa and Ma stand by,
That they will never falter, but love Her till they die."

When the "news broke" here at Borden's, we fear a trick was played.
We had heard the rumor often, but now the truth was said.
We pray that on his wedding trip on the Matrimonial Seas,
He'll love the sea, and love the ship, and also love Louise!

We planned to send a gift to him of roses dipped in honey,
Mr. Jackson * said "the h—, give the guy the money."
"He'll get enough of sweetness to last him for a spell,
And when he's back to normal, he'll want some cash as well."

* Mr. Jackson is the boss.

Upon their return from their honeymoon, they will reside at Elwood Street. Their new home has been completely furnished now! Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mitchell will be located in the Bronx.

Mrs. Johanna McCluskey, being unable to attend the wedding, sent a congratulatory letter to the newlyweds. She has known Eddie since he was a small boy in her old neighborhood on 159th Street.

He is wise who says nothing when he has nothing to say.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE

By Felix Kowalewski

Saturday evening, May 12th, the Kappa Gamma fraternity will give a dance in the Old Gymnasium. The dance will be in the form of a Mexican Fiesta. All Kappa Gamma brothers within the vicinity are welcome.

The third annual A. A. U. wrestling tournament of the District of Columbia was held over the week-end of May 4th at the downtown Y. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. A. men carried off top honors with 27 points, and Gallaudet finished third with 10 points. Three of our boys, Kinlaw, Culbertson, and Tolefson each took second place, and were awarded silver medals. Those entered in the tournament were Wallace Kinlaw, 126 pounds; Wilson Grabill, 135; Stanley Patrie and Gordon Hirschy, 145; Norman Brown, 155; Olaf Tollefson, 175; and George Culbertson, unlimited. All of our boys put up an impressive scrap, and they are more to be credited since only two of them had any previous experience in A. A. U. tournaments. It is hoped that next year Gallaudet will come out on top. The tournament brings our wrestling season to a close, and let's all join in and give three rousing cheers and an encore for Earl Sollenberger, '34, our student coach, and for David Davidowitz, '36, manager, for the successful completion of a strenuous season. Contracts are already being arranged for matches with other colleges during the 1934-35 season.

During the past week, the co-eds' clubs and organizations have been nominating candidates for 1934-35 officers. Elections will be held in the near future.

Friday afternoon, May 4th, representatives from the various colleges of the District gathered at Kendall Green for the Intra-Mural Horse-Shoe Tournament. Teddy Tucker, P. C., captured first prize of a gold medal in the singles tournament. In the final game he and his opponent were tied with nineteen points each. Then his opponent scored four more points with a ringer and a leaner—but Teddy coolly took his turn and made a double ringer, winning the match. With Francis Higgins, '36, as his partner, he was not so fortunate in the doubles tournament, which was captured by Maryland University. A small bronze plaque was awarded to team winning the doubles tournament.

Saturday afternoon, May 5th, Gallaudet's trackmen squelched the Maryland Frosh, 66 to 50, at the Interscholastic Meet held at College Park, Md. Captain Bob Travis ran up fourteen points for Gallaudet, winning first place in the 440-yard run, and came in second in the broad jump, the high jump, and in the 880-yard run. Emil Ladner and John Leicht were next with twelve and ten points, respectively. By an odd coincidence, Joseph Burnett, '37, who hails from Utah, set a new record in the mile run with a time of 4 minutes, 42.4 seconds, eclipsing the former record of 4 minutes, 43.6 seconds, established on the very same day in 1923 by G. Stebbins, also from Utah. Gallaudet will entertain Randolph-Macon's trackmen at Hotchkiss field on Saturday, May 12th.

The Misses Anna Marino and Nina Fehrman, '34, accompanied a party of the Normals as cooks on a week-end trip.

Friday evening, May 4th, the Literary Society held a short story telling contest, and their stories and the manner in which they were delivered, were so good that the judges were quite in a quandry, but the award finally went to David Davidowitz, '36, for his rendition of "The Inmate of the Dungeon." George Brown, '34, gave an admirable rendition of "Piere's Story," Robert Horgen, '35, followed with "Krag, the Kootenay Ram," and Alfred Caliguri, '37, with "The Foreigner." It had been previously decided that the Tom L. Anderson Cup for Oratory should be divided into two divisions, one for story telling and one for poetry declamation. The winner in each division will have his name engraved on the cup. The Poetry Declamation Contest will be held on the evening of Friday, May 18th.

The Dramatic Club wishes to announce an entertainment to be given in the Chapel Hall at 8 P.M., on the evening of May 25th. The feature will be a play in comedy form, "Who's Crazy Now?" Admission will be twenty-five cents to all.

Saturday evening, May 5th, the Y. M. S. C. gave a party in Chapel Hall. Games and dancing were indulged in, and refreshments were served.

The co-eds will present a Fashion Show in Chapel Hall, this Friday afternoon, May 11th, under the direction of Mrs. Craig. Visitors are welcome.

By special request of the students, sincere appreciation is extended to the efforts of Mr. Powrie, Doctor, and to the camp leader, Hemio Antila, '34, and his aides, to make last week's spring vacation the most enjoyable one ever spent at camp. So far, not a trace of the missing sail boat has been found, and it seems that it has gone down to Davy Jones' locker.

Sunday afternoon, May 6th, two busloads of the students left on a sight-seeing tour of the Washington Cathedral, the Mormon Church, the Church of the Sacred Heart, and Meridian Park. Mr. Doctor was chaperon, and organized the trip primarily for the students of early European history and world religion. Mrs. Hall, Miss Nelson, Mrs. Drake and her sister, also accompanied the party, and Miss Bruns of the Normals aided Mr. Doctor as interpreter for the guides. Mr. Will Hubehins of American University was their guide at the Washington Cathedral, and Father Dunn at the Church of the Sacred Heart, which is one of the finest examples of Byzantine and Romanesque architecture. Mr. Kimbal, who for twenty-eight years was organist of the Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City, and who has been in charge of the Mormon deaf for the last ten years, was their guide at the Mormon Church. Mr. Kimbal's organ recitals are broadcasted regularly over the NBC radio network. After the bus trip, Mr. Doctor gave a rendition of the story of the "House of Rothschild" before a group of the students assembled on the steps of Chapel Hall, so they would be better able to understand the plot as it is being presented on the screen in local theatres.

KAMP KAHLERT DIARY

By Edna Paananen

Monday—Through the Coeds were all ready to leave for Kamp Kahlert long before ten o'clock, the time agreed upon, the buses were the as usual. But finally they did arrive, and the girls reached camp about twelve. They kept busy for about half an hour searching for the best beds, blankets, and otherwise settling down. The outdoor air had whetted the campers' appetites, but they were doomed for a long wait for luncheon due to the tardiness of the provision trucks. When the meal finally was served at three o'clock everyone was more than ready for it. Since it is a well-known fact that it is not wise to exercise too much the first day in camp, the Coeds lazed around in the afternoon reading, napping, or talking. The evening was spent in much the same way, but the monotony was broken up with the arrival of some letters from Camp Roosevelt.

Tuesday—The day dawned bright and warm—much more than expected. During the morning hours the girls got their first sunburn from Old Sol's rays. Some venturesome ones went in swimming—but not for long as the sun had not yet penetrated in the icy depth of the bay. In the afternoon with the sky a beautiful blue, a big group left for a hike to the bay. On their return home the weather made a sudden change and the rain came down in torrents. The unfortunate hikers arrived home looking like bedraggled puppies. The evening was chilly, and a big bunch was found in the kitchen, hugging the stove.

Wednesday—The weather was cold enough to keep everyone indoors. Despite the dullness, the faculty were faithful and came to have dinner with us. The meal was the usual splendid "fac" dinner, and it is needless to say that everyone enjoyed it. Because of the roughness of the bay the annual launch ride was canceled. The guests played bridge and had their fortunes told by Loretta Oryall.

An outing had been slated, but as no one wished to brave the cold, an "indoor outing" was held instead. Later in the evening the "Preps" gave a play. The scene was laid in a beauty culture shop, fifty years from now. In this supernatural place there was a marvelous machine which could perform the most unusual things. From it fat women emerged thin, old ladies became romping children, large dogs shrunk to sausages, too beautiful girls were made plain, and other equally amazing acts were done by the aid of this one contrivance. After the play, the camp chaperones, Misses Remsberg and Benson, took eight girls on a moonlight hike to Chalk Point, a place about a mile from camp. The hike was something to remember.

Thursday—At the eerie hour of five, two maidens could have been seen tiptoeing home from the kitchen where they had spent the night. It seems that they had agreed at college to keep awake one night. From all reports everything went all right with them and no spooks or other unwelcome visitors molested them. In the morning a group went out rowing and because of the strong breeze were unable to return to the camp shore. They drifted to the opposite shore, and then trekked home through swamp and mire arriving at camp very muddy spectacles. In the evening as soon as it was dark, the Preps were taken on a snipe hunt. Equipped with laundry bags they were escorted to the woods by a few upper class girls. Later on with their sacks filled, the Preps found their way home. Verna Thompson found the most snipes, and Marie John got the booby prize.

Friday—The last day in camp was spent mostly indoors because of the frigid weather. Both regrets and huzzas were voiced at the thought of returning home on the morrow—regrets from those who preferred any amount of cold to the college dining room fare and the classrooms, and huzzas from those who were tired of freezing. In the morning a snake was found in a deserted cabin and caused some excitement. Some of the girls vowed they wouldn't sleep a wink during the night unless the snake was killed. One girl finally screwed up enough courage to kill it, and then proudly posed for a snapshot with the trophy. During the evening some girls volunteered to make refreshments, and the campers enjoyed a little party, bringing the last evening at camp to a happy close.

Saturday—Though the sun was shining brightly when the campers awoke, it was very cold and the dining room silverware felt like ice. After breakfast everything was packed up for the return trip to Washington and civilization. The buses turned up at ten o'clock and shortly after departed with the girls sharing seats with milk cans and bundles and boxes of every size. They reached home at 11:30, and then there was a mad scramble for the showers and clean clothes. In all, the vacation was a great success as everyone returned home feeling one hundred percent better and ready for another month of work.

He Had Had More Time

Two small boys at the newsboys' dinner, says the New York Sun, put their grimy hands side by side upon the table-cloth.

"Mine's dirtier'n yours!" exclaimed one, triumphantly.

"Huh" said the other, disdainfully. "You're two years older'n me."

OMAHA

We learned with keen regret of the passing of Edward C. Elsworth, of New York. We met him at two conventions and chummed around with him; and corresponded for a while. He was pleasant and versatile, with a cheerful disposition.

Saturday evening, April 28th, was a gala event for Omaha Division, No. 32, when a Bridge and bunco party was arranged. Ninety-one attended, one of the largest crowds in nearly a year. From Lincoln, Neb., came Mr. and Mrs. John Chowins, Frank Milan and Katherine Babcock. Sioux Falls, S. D., was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krohn, Mrs. Dorothy Brush, Miss Ruth Scott and P. A. Bathke. Mr. Krohn has scarcely changed. He is the same handsome, happy-go-lucky chap as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gibson came from Glenwood, Iowa, and about a dozen came from Council Bluffs. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zabel and brother Floyd motored all the way from Western, Neb.; Mrs. Minnie Holloway and Mrs. Eva Comp, recently of California, were also there.

Nine tables at Bridge and twelve at Bunco proved a record. Abe Rosenblatt, who substituted for a lady, and Scott Cuscaden won the prizes for high scores at Bridge. Mrs. John M. Thompson and Charles Macek won at Bunco. The door prize, a large beautiful framed picture went to Mrs. Dale Paden. Mr. and Mrs. Paden have just moved to 4609 Fort Street, where they are raising chickens (not Cain) and a garden. A pupil, Lester Hanson, won the children's door prize. Mrs. Oscar M. Treuke won the prize for guessing the nearest correct number of beans in a jar.

Nathan Lahn of the Iowa School is the possessor of a new 1933 Dodge sedan, which he traded for his old car. On April 28th, he drove to Olathe, Kansas, taking along Messrs. Konrad Hokanson, Eugene McConnell and Abe Rosenblatt. They visited the Kansas School, returning late Sunday night, the 29th. A week previous Mr. Lahn visited his "sweetie" somewhere in Missouri. Sh!

On Saturday afternoon April 14th, occurred the wedding of Miss Gwendolyn Linxwiler, formerly of Hillboro, Ill., and Carl Jourdan of Omaha, at the home of the groom's parents. Rev. Mr. Mappes officiated. Mrs. Dolly Flood and James Hargis stood up with them. The young couple will make their home in Omaha, where Mr. Jourdan has a steady job with a bakery concern.

Mrs. Edith O'Brien and sister, Miss Emma Marshall, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Cuscaden in April. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. O'Brien.

Miss Grace M. Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Long, was baptized in Calvary Baptist Church Sunday evening, April 15th.

For his ten years' service with the Nebraska Power Co., Robert E. Dobson was presented a pin. He received a letter from the company congratulating him. The deaf are steady and faithful workers.

Bring your friends. An interpreter will read the play. Miss Peggy Green of "Show Boat" and "Of Thee I Sing" will sing.

St. Louis, Mo.

The following were recently confirmed at St. Thomas Mission by the Rt. Rev. William Scarlett, Bishop of Missouri, presented by Rev. A. O. Steidemann: Catherine Shepherd, Mabel Cunningham, Loreau and Joseph Buhr, Julius Youngberg and Raymond Bowman. A large congregation was present to witness the ceremony and listen to the annual sermon given by the bishop, which was interpreted by Miss Herdman.

We regret to announce the death of Sarah Fadem Miller, wife of Edward Miller, who died on the 10th of pulmonary trouble that had kept her more or less confined to her home for the past fifteen years. Her cheerful spirit, however, never gave up hope of ultimate recovery. Her end was painless, she dying in a few minutes after her last attack. The Rev. A. O. Steidemann officiated at her funeral, with the members of the Woman's Guild of St. Thomas as pallbearers. Mesdames Burgherr and Berwin sang hymns at the services, which were attended by many friends and relatives, who contributed numerous floral offerings. Two sons, besides her husband, survive her.

Mrs. Charles Wess, of Belleville, recently entered St. Luke's hospital of this city for an operation that, due to her condition, has not yet been performed. Mrs. Behr quitted the same institution a few days ago, her operation there having been a success. Our Henry Stumpe, hit by a bus late in January, is still in the city hospital, but is recovering and hopes to be out and on his feet again by the end of the month.

An euchre and bunco party was held at the Gallaudet Club rooms on the 28th for St. Thomas Mission, to which many crowded, a record in attendance being hung up for such affairs. Many prizes were given the leaders of the games. A barbecue, managed by Jack Crossen, was the main attraction. The evening was in charge of Carl Hiken, who turned it into a social and financial success.

Mrs. Mary Harden made a late winter trip to Florida and Mobile, Alabama, last month with her daughter, Mrs. Lambe, and reports a nice time, although the climate was about as cold as the local variety. Miss Louisa Brookes was in New Orleans at about the same time, visiting relatives of her family.

A surprise party was tendered Mrs. Steidemann on the occasion of her birthday by the Alton, Ill., congregation of her husband, and attendant friends, after services at the church. Many nice remembrances of the day were given and a supper was served to all later in the evening. A good time was had by all attending.

Mr. Stephen Shuey, of Newton, Mo., a graduate of Gallaudet College, Class of 1890, died at his home about the 15th of April. He was formerly a teacher at the Missouri school for several years, but has lived a retired life for many years past.

St. Thomas Mission Bible Class had a hike and outing at Creve Coeur on the 29th, which many attended. The weather was very cool, making the free coffee greatly appreciated. A weiner roast was had, with a hike and athletic games all afternoon. Creve Coeur is a park left in its natural beauty, bordered by Creve Coeur Lake, several miles in extent, a cut-off from the Missouri River, and about twenty miles from the city. It was very popular in the past but now, with everyone having a car, is left too much alone as too near the city for an outing. The crowd remained till near dark ere leaving for home, having decided to come again when a date can be arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredo Hyman, of Chicago, are in town at present, the guests of the Blackschlagers; Mrs. B. having been a schoolmate and pal of Mrs. Hyman before the latter's marriage removed her from our midst. They attended the euchre on the 28th and hike on the 29th, meeting old and making new friends.

The Local Division of the Frats will celebrate its silver anniversary with a cafeteria supper at the Gallaudet Club, the depression preventing a banquet in style. Tickets are out for the affair to be held on May 5th. The charter members, of whom four are still with us, will be guests of the evening. The committee is working hard to make the evening one to be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. Reddick, formerly of this State, but now residing in Los Angeles, Cal., paid their friends here a visit, being guests of the Haigs, Mrs. Haigs having been a pal of Mrs. Reddick in school days. The Arnots gave them a reception on the 3d, to which many friends came, filling all the house.

A stork shower was given the Labertas at the home of the Spicuzzis on the 15th. Many mementos of the day were bestowed that will later come in handy. A good time was had by all.

A birthday party was tendered Mr. Hafner by some thirty-five of his friends on the 7th, most of the invited being employees of the Barton Company, of which plant he is one of the foremen. He was remembered with many gifts of the day.

Mrs. Young, of Chicago, was a guest of the Kilpatrick for several weeks but was called home hurriedly, due to her daughter's illness. On that account, not many of her friends had the opportunity to meet her as desired.

The Woman's Guild of St. Thomas Mission will hold their annual spring bazaar and supper on Saturday evening, May 19th, in the Tuttle Memorial Building, 1210 Locust Street. The Guild promises the usual good supper for the price offered, and it is hoped the usual big crowd will attend the affair.

Florida Flashes

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cory, Jr., entertained at a delightful surprise dinner on Sunday, April 15th, at their beautiful residence in St. Petersburg, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Philpott, of St. Cloud, who were house guests of the genial host and hostess. Friends of both parties were also invited.

The "First Lady" of the mansion, as Mrs. Cory is popularized, was assisted in serving by a few intimate friends of the hostess. As it was the Sabbath, no games were played but conversation was enjoyed. Those invited were: Dr. Robert Patterson, Henry Bierhaus, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Watson, H. S. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Carter, David Tillinghast, Garret Pancoast, Harry Jacobs, Reba Blackwelder, Marie Kastner, Dorothy Atkins, Miss Grattan, and a few others.

This month will witness a fast dwindling population in St. Petersburg of permanent and winter residents. Those planning to spend the summer in the North are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cory, Dr. Robert Patterson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Watson, Mr. Henry Bierhaus, Mr. David Tillinghast, Mrs. Leon Carter, and Miss Grattan.

Chrystal Cobb, of Sarasota, is wearing a broad smile these days, due to a good fortune that befell him. On the 5th and 6th of January, he harvested 1,100 crates of U.S. No. 1 celery per acre, which proved to be a money maker. He owns a large plantation and has been for several years specializing on celery. He is married and has one daughter, and they live in Sarasota.

Rev. Franklin C. Smielau, whose headquarters are established in St. Petersburg, attended the twelfth annual convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Florida early last April, and the writer returned April 22d from St. Augustine, where he was in attendance at the St. John's River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His annual report was read and favorably commented upon by Bishop Keenev.

Deaf students at the St. Augustine school gave a marvelous gymnastic exhibition, which is an annual affair, on the campus Friday night, April 20th. Ralph Parks, boys' physical director, and Carl Holland, military instructor, had charge of the program.

Robert Pacetti, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsey Pacetti, died in St. Augustine on April 19th, following an illness of only five days. Funeral services were conducted at the Cathedral and interment took place Saturday at the family plot in the San Lorenzo Cemetery.

Rev. Franklin C. Smielau and the rector of All Saints' Church at Lakeland presented a deaf candidate for confirmation at that place on Monday morning, April 23d, to Bishop Wing, of Orlando.

Mesdames Walter Dean and John Schmidt, of Winter Haven, called on St. Cloud friends April 27th. Mrs. Dean informed them of the total destruction by fire of the country residence of her parents in St. Cloud on Thursday, April 19. Mr. Schmidt will return to the Firestone plant in Akron by the middle of May, Mrs. Schmidt stated, for summer work.

Miss Mary Maxwell, of Chicago, who has been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Holt at Jacksonville, returned home April 9th.

A benefit party was successfully staged at Harry's Hall in Jacksonville recently, when fifty-five deaf people congregated to participate. A neat sum of twenty dollars and forty-one cents was netted for the Dixie Home.

Marvin Connell, of Jacksonville, has accepted a position with Homer Drew in Eastis, and left April 8th to start work on the following Monday.

The following news item, which no doubt will be of much interest to the friends of the contracting parties, is reproduced from the Lakeland Ledger of April 29th. "Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rodman Leach are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Beulah Gwendolyn, to Mr. Laurence Harrington Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Randall, of Daytona Beach. The ceremony was performed Saturday at high noon by Dr. C. M. Crosswy, pastor of the First Baptist Church, at the parsonage. The bride wore an attractive ensemble of navy blue triple sheer with a cream lace blouse and fingertip length jacket, which was scalloped. Her hat and other accessories matched the tone of her dress, and her corsage was of Luxembourg roses and baby-breath. Mrs. Randall came to Lakeland from St. Marys, Kan., when a small child, and received her education in the schools of St. Augustine. Mr. Randall is a graduate of Gallaudet College in Washington, D. C., and holds a responsible position with the E. O. Painter Printing Company, Deland. After May 1st, the bride and groom will be at 218 South Boulevard, Deland. Both have many friends, who will join in extending congratulations and good wishes."

The annual question popped up is, where will the deaf of Florida spend the glorious Fourth of July? The exact place of patriotic festivities will be announced in a later flash.

Sound Enjoyment

The spirit of modern life is to plunge into experiences vigorously and get the most from them. This was the spirit that animated the man who preferred tough beefsteak because there was more "chew to it."

Similarly virile was the attitude of Mr. Skillings, who had come to town to order a new family carriage in the olden days.

"Now I suppose you want rubber tires?" said the agent.

"No, sir," replied Mr. Skillings. "My folks ain't that kind. When we're riding we want to know it."

NEW YORK
CONVENTION

JULY 23-28,
1934

Folks are doing things rapidly these days! The successful ones are those that remain alive to changing situations. I know of no better medium to keep in touch with the vital problems that are of so much concern to all of us than through attendance at the N. A. D. Convention. And, incidentally, you'll be seeing NEW YORK!

Ever been to Italy, France, Russia, Spain, China, and twenty other nations? No? Neither have I.

Most of us are not blest with a surplus of funds to indulge in foreign travel. But you'd probably be surprised to know that there are colonies of them right at hand here. For a complete change of scene and a breath of foreign air, I give you New York City. It is truly a "Summer Resort that is different." Swept by ocean breezes, yet planted on solid rock, a grand palace wherein to loaf and rest up for the toils of next Winter."

Please read our Tentative Program, printed in this issue of the JOURNAL. We are bending every effort to make it as complete as possible, considering the multitude of attractions and diverse tastes of folks. We, too, are human and very, very humble, if you must know; hence constructive suggestions, if any, are in order and welcome.

More detailed information will be presented in future issues. In the meantime, please bear these red-letter dates in mind: JULY 23d-28th, 1934, when we will all convene in New York City.

MARCUS L. KENNER,

Chairman

KITCHENER

We were all delighted to see Mrs. Frank Harris amongst us once more even though it was only for a day when she came from Toronto with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. D. Tate in the latter's car. That day, which was Sunday, Mr. Harris gave us a very fine service, where a large crowd gathered. Mrs. Charles Golds and Mrs. A. Martin each ably rendered very beautiful hymns and Mr. Walter Wagener said the Lord's Prayer. The Toronto visitors were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golds. Mrs. Lucille B. Moynihan spent the week-end in London with friends and had a very enjoyable time.

Miss Pola Prus has left the dress-making establishment where she has been taking a course, and is now doing business for herself. She left the Belleville school last year and is still in the middle of her teens so it is quite a surprise, but Pola is sure to do well, the way she takes a thing and holds it.

Mr. John Forsyth, of Elmira, was the guest of the Williams recently, and while here he looked in vain for work.

The Kitchener Association of the Deaf has decided to resume holding annual picnics, which have not been held for the past ten years. The next one is to be held at Soper Park in Galt on Civic holiday, August 6th. Further particulars will be given in a later issue of the JOURNAL.

We are all pleased with our new correspondent and hope the old reporters will wake up and send in their local news. The bear has come out, so why don't you?

HAMILTON

The deaf members of Centenary Church received a cordial invitation to an entertainment at St. Peter's Church hall on Thursday, 26th April, through Mr. Stafford Royal, President of St. Peter's A. Y. P. A.

The entertainment, "A Cruise to England," consisted of moving pictures of ocean liners, and various scenes of interest in England, including views of historical castles, etc.

Although the evening was very wet, the rain did not dampen the spirits of the deaf, who enjoyed the pictures immensely, and also the refreshments which followed.

Mr. Royal, who is a brother-in-law of our young friend Jim Matthews, takes a very kindly interest in the deaf and was instrumental in obtaining for the local club the free use of a room in the Parish Hall of All Saints' Church.

Mr. Royal has also arranged, from time to time, for addresses to the deaf by clergymen and others. Mrs. Carl Harris, who is always so willing to assist in any work for the deaf, ably acted as interpreter.

At a recent social, the club members showed their appreciation of Mr. Royal's efforts on their behalf by presenting him with an "occasional" chair; and on the same occasion, Mr. Carl Harris received a handsome smoking stand and Mrs. Harris a lovely cushion; while Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gleadow were presented with a cabinet of silverware.

Mr. Clifford Grimoldby, of Owen Sound, has returned to Hamilton after a vain attempt to find employment in St. Catharines and will remain for a few days to try to find something to do.

Mr. Stewart, who has been away for some time, visiting friends in Toronto and elsewhere, turned up at the Sunday service in Centenary Church and is looking very well.

There are still a number of the deaf of Hamilton unemployed. Conditions are improving generally, though the improvement is very slow.

A. M. ADAM.

Spokane, Wash.

Spokane has lived up to its name of "sunny Spokane," the past winter, the temperature at its lowest was 20 degrees above zero. Now with the advent of Spring we are enjoying the warm sunshine, also the Spring flowers, which are very early this year. Tulips and lilacs are in bloom. The foliage and blossoms of the tree are beautiful. On March 11th, Sunday, the temperature soared to a maximum temperature of 65 at 4 P.M. This was the warmest March 11th in forty-two years. A beautiful drive was enjoyed last Sunday by Mrs. Belle Bergh's son and family. The trip covered one of the new drives just completed near Spokane. It is called the river drive and includes some of the most beautiful scenery near here. The upper part takes one through the valley where many fruit trees are now in bloom, with snow capped Mt. Spokane, in the distance. The lower part below the falls lead through a canyon formed of volcanic rocks and winds past Fort George Wright and back to the heart of the city.

Mrs. Exie Bell and Miss M. Allen entertained the deaf association in the hall of the Spokane Lutheran Church. The decorations and games were cleverly carried out in Easter motif. Several prizes were awarded for the games played. At the close of an enjoyable evening's entertainment an Easter lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Exie Bell and Miss Judith Hoeberg entertained the Frat Club, which is composed of twenty-five ladies of the deaf association, at the home of Mrs. Exie Bell. Saint Patrick held sway for the day. Everyone came dressed in costumes fitting the occasion. Mrs. Belle Bergh received the prize for the best costume. The afternoon was spent in games. At the afternoon entertainment a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

John L. Clarke, a famous deaf Indian sculptor and artist, with his wife (hearing) and young daughter spent the winter in Spokane, leaving April 1st, for their home in Glacier Park, Montana. While here they received notice that they had struck oil on their land near Cut Banks, Mont. At Glacier Park, John L. Clarke has a studio. Tourists who are planning trips through beautiful Glacier National Park should remember Clark's studio.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Willman, formerly of Spokane and but now of Los Angeles, Cal., drove their car up to Spokane for a visit with Mr. Willman's two brothers and old friends. While in Spokane a party was given in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Leary. Mr. O'Leary went with Mr. and Mrs. Willman to Seattle, returning to Spokane a week later.

Miss Violet Carlson passed away April 2d. She used to live in Duluth, Minn., and went to the school for the deaf at Faribault. When her parents moved to Spokane, she went to the Vancouver school. She was twenty-three years old.

Mrs. Susie Chambers and family have moved into Spokane to make their future home. Mrs. Chambers is going to sell her farm in Spokane valley.

John Frisby has sold his ranch in Spokane valley and has taken up his residence in the city.

Mrs. John Silk and son are visiting in Texas with Mrs. Silk's mother.

Mrs. Ruby Winchell, on the sick list for several weeks, is on the way to recovery.

MRS. SPOKANE

Impossible

I suppose," said a sympathizing neighbor, "that you will erect a handsome monument to your husband's memory?"

"Oh no!" the tearful widow replied, "not to his memory! Why, poor John hadn't any. I was sorting over some of his clothes today, and I found the pockets full of letters I had given him to post."

OHIO

News items for this column can be sent to Miss B. Edgar, 56 Latta Ave., Columbus, O.

Rattan, the deaf wrestler of fame, and Mrs. Rattan have decided to keep near Columbus during the summer and have rented a cottage at Buckeye Lake where both can enjoy swimming, can be persuaded to have an exhibition of wrestling at the coming reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Kennedy entertained the former's father, brother and his wife from Fultonville, New York, for a week. The folks, of course, took in the school and shops and were much pleased with what they saw.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beckert, officers at the school, had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. Beckert's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Davis, of Trenton, Michigan. The visitors also found time to greet their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis, who live near the school.

Mrs. J. C. Winemiller was hostess at the birthday party at the Ohio Home last month. Seven residents were in her party.

May 4th, one twig of the Columbus Ladies' Aid Society, will hold a bake sale and a lunch in the school hall. This is an annual affair and many of the teachers patronize the sale.

The Ladies' Aid Society is divided into twigs for entertainment purposes to help along the Laundry Fund.

The next twig will sell home made candy at the reunion. Then sometime in the summer Mrs. Neutzling with her twig will have a chicken supper at her home.

Early in the fall another twig will have a weiner roast at the Mac Gregor park. Then in November, under the leadership of Mrs. Winemiller, will come to the annual social in which all members take part. So, you see, this Ladies' Aid Society is leaving no stone unturned to help the Ohio Home.

Miss Grace Pennington, of Zanesville, became Mrs. Marshall Ayers, some time last month, but her Columbus friends knew nothing about it till they came to Columbus recently and she then let it be known.

Owing to the continued cold weather so far this spring, outings have been few and far between. The Boy Scouts are all fixed to go to camp on the 4th to remain till Sunday, the 6th.

With only four more weeks of school before them, the teachers are having extra work pile up on them and are thankful for the cool weather.

Mrs. Nilson, wife of Principal Nilson, has been teaching for Miss Shewmaker, who has been quite ill and has been absent for several weeks. Mrs. Nilson had experience in teaching before her marriage.

That was a terrible tragedy at the West Virginia School for colored deaf and blind, when the superintendent, temporarily insane, fired upon the children in the dining room wounding a few of them.

At a boxing match at the Columbus Y. M. C. A. recently a Columbus Dispatch sport writer had the following to say about Peter Tamalonis, one of boys at the school who has long wished to become a wrestler:

Ed Hess, former South High athlete and Peter Tamalonis, O. S. S. D. student, brought the crowd to their feet when they mixed up for the entire route with bits of clever work. The South Side boy won the decision.

In the opinion of the writer, Hess was very lucky to get the decision, Tamalonis was far superior in effective hitting, he used a left jab followed by a hard right across to the head repeatedly, it bothered Hess quite a deal and he kept his distance most of the time, preferring to fight by rushing in and roughing in the clinches.

Columbus Division, No. 18, N. F. S. D., will have a movie show at the school May 5th. Films taken at the school and showing pictures of the late Dr. Jones are to be shown, along with others rented for the purpose.

A dance never seems too long when you have the right partner.

Once a month every man complains of his family's extravagances.

Mr. Finis Reneau, of Philadelphia, was in town for the week-end, and was shown around by his former school-mate, Edward Carr. Rev. H. J. Pulver also came down this way to attend a meeting of the N. A. D. Art Exhibit Committee.

Mrs. Catherine Underhill (nee Ryan) won a sealed verdict against the Long Island R. R. for $40,000 in the Queens County Supreme Court for the death of her husband, a brakeman. She sued for $100,000. Mr. Underhill was not deaf and was killed two years ago in the performance of his duty when another car sideswiped the one he was working on and crushed him.—New Ephpheta.

Score one for Mr. A. Schoenwaldt of Ozone Park, L. I. He caused the arrest of an imposter who claimed to be "deaf and dumb; help support my wife." Mr. Schoenwaldt not only reported him to the police, but appeared in court when the case was called, with the result that the faker is now safely resting in jail, where he can ruminate on his ill-chosen profession.

A really high-class low-brow entertainment is being concocted by the leading nit-wits of the town, all of them persons of culture and refinement, who will make a serious attempt to be silly (what could be more silly?) at the Strawberry Festival and Stage Entertainment to be given at St. Anns Auditorium, Saturday evening, June 2d. Red, ripe, luscious strawberries will be served, and may prove a satisfactory lotion for the pain you will have in your sides (from laughing at the antics on the stage).

Jacob B. Weinberg, father of Lawrence and David, passed away in his seventy-sixth year on May 5th, 1934. David will be remembered as "Marvel, the Deaf-Mute Dancer," and was in Cincinnati, O., where he was billed for the week of May 5th, but came home in time to attend the funeral.

Nearly 100 people attended the card and bunco party held by the N. F. S. D., Queens Division, No. 115, at the Y. M. C. A., on Saturday, April 21st. Prof. Walker, the magician, a friend of J. E. Taplin, entertained with his magic and tricks, which was enjoyed by all. J. E. Taplin was chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Messrs. Camman, Schoenwaldt, Barry, and Koster. Messrs. Klein, Maier and Mrs. Rapolt won the prizes for high score in "500," and Mrs. Schoenwaldt, Mrs. C. Herrmann, Mr. W. Aufort, Mr. L. Herrmann, T. Gilbert, R. Dulugatch and Mr. J. Gabriel, won the bunco prizes.
